- Please fill out this donation form. We are forbidden by law from accepting any anonymous donations. Anonymous cash must be turned over to the state, which will squander it.
- Your e-mail address is requested in order to place you on a low-volume, announcements-only mailing list. Your e-mail address will not be shared with other organizations, sold, rented, etc.
- We are required to disclose contributions of more than $99 (aggregate total over the course of a calendar year) on a campaign disclosure form that is filed with New York State and can be viewed online by anyone (see New York State 2015 Election Law §14-102 (1)).
- A husband and wife can give up to $99 each without having their names disclosed, but they must write two separate checks, even if the two checks are drawn on the same account.
- There is an absolute limit of $100 cash per election cycle
- Please feel free to contact us with any questions that you may have about campaign finance. It is a complex and arcane subject, full of picayune technicalities. You can also consult the New York State Board of Elections website <www.elections.ny.gov>.
